Spatial data viewer

The component responsible for the implementation of the functions related to the publication of SIPWW spatial data.

The component responsible for the implementation of the functions related to the publication of SIPWW spatial data, as well as the implementation of additional spatial functions and services, which are implemented by the spatial data viewer modules.